Winter Games: Only one response was received to an email request for interest on this—therefore games will not be held at this time. In the new year we will send out another request for interest.

Christmas Luncheon: discussion was held on the coordination of this during this transfer of ownership period with the city. With too many unknown variables this event is cancelled. We hope to have a celebration event in the early spring when all is completed.

Locker room organization is ongoing this month and will continue till complete.

The sprinkler system has been blown for winter, and the fire extinguishers are recertified for another year.
